

HEBREW 101

LEARNING TO READ HEBREW At Shir Chadash

Sunday(s), June 3, 10, 24 & July 1 - 10:30 AM to Noon

- Do you want to become more involved in Jewish prayer?
- Are you planning a trip to Israel and want to be able to read signs in Hebrew, even though you know most signs are also in English? It would be far more gratifying for you to read them in Hebrew.
- Do you feel a little lost at Shabbat services because you cannot read the Hebrew words for some of the basic prayers, such as the Shema, Aleinu, or Adon Olam?
- Do you have a desire to someday have a Bar or Bat Mitzvah (yes, YOUR OWN Bnai Mitzvah), but fear that your inability to read Hebrew will prevent you from ever achieving this dream?

If your answer is YES to any of these questions, then HEBREW 101 is for you!!

Learning to read Hebrew will establish the groundwork for you to be able to follow the prayers at services, read a few of the Hebrew words on the signs for your next trip to Israel, or even be the start of YOUR BAR or BAT MITZVAH training!

5-week Crash Reading Course for adults only, using materials developed by the National Jewish Outreach Program (NJOP)

Professor Graham Rael-Brook, will be our instructor.

Dr. Art Oster, DBA, fellow congregant, and assistant teacher.

There is no charge for the class (FREE). Students are encouraged (on a strictly voluntary basis) to bring snacks or refreshments (kosher, of course). Attendance in ALL classes is of the utmost importance.

Please call Carol at the office (562/429-0715) on or before May 25th and tell her you would like to sign up for Hebrew 101. Please give her your name, contact phone number and e-mail address.
