Exploring the Prophets'

Spiritual Message

The Biblical Prophets are well known for their political and, especially, social critique of their Israelite society. But what of their spiritual message? How did they envision one's proper relationship with God? How might one become more open to sensing God's will in their lives? What is it that God truly requires of us?

Attend this class and discover the Prophets' inner, sometimes hidden, message.
Rabbi Howard Laibson will teach this course.
Wednesday evenings, November 8th & 15th from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

The Torah commands us to study the Torah and know it well, and to teach it to others. Don't miss this very opportunity.

Dec. 1st 6:00 PM:

A unique worship experience at Congregation Shir Chadash. This prayer experience is filled with contemporary and traditional melodies (accompanied by guitar) and many opportunities to privately, and silently, contemplate the meanings of the prayers. We welcome Shabbat in a calming, restorative manner. Kiddush and Motzi will follow the service. Don't miss the next one.

"Questions Jews Ask"

Nosh & Nilmad

Every Thursday morning, from 10:30 a.m. – Noon, we gather in the Finkelstein Social Hall for a little nosh and a bit of study. Our text is Rabbi Joseph Telushkin's book, A Code Of Jewish Ethics. This is a wonderful opportunity to broaden one's Jewish horizons, nibble on sweets, and have a grand time schmoozing and learning with friends.

Nosh & Nilmad means "eat a little and let's learn." The fun has began and we hope to see more of you join us. (Participants are more than welcome to come to the synagogue at 8:30 a.m. Thursday mornings to attend our Morning Minyan, too.)

CHEVRE TORAH

Every Shabbat morning, at 9:00 - 10 a.m., Rabbi Laibson will facilitate a very participatory discussion related to one or more aspects of the weekly Torah portion. Be sure to join him. Shabbat Shacharit Service to follow.

Our Condolences to:

Sara Ohayon & family on the passing of her beloved mother Rebecca Benudiz
